MORE SENSATIONS REVEALED BY PROBE

Lobby Investigators Busy Securing New Information.

MANY NEW DEVELOPMENTS

Witnesses Pouring Into Washington from Every Direction to Testify Before Senate Lobby Investigating Committee

Washington, D. C., July 1.—With witnesses headed for Washington from many directions to testify in the newest developments in the Senate's lobby investigation, Chairman Overman gave a hint tonight of further sensations in the committee's activities. An inquiry has been under way for sometime, it is understood, into operation of paid press bureaus conducted by large corporations and "interests," and the committee expects to determine to what extent paid publicity agents are employed to attempt to influence public opinion or direct Federal legislation.

The charges by Martin M. Mulhall, former representative of the Manufacturers' Association, regarding his lobbying operations will not be opened formally until next Tuesday. Tomorrow's hearing will be devoted primarily to the testimony of Wall Street men believed to have information as to lobbying activities in New York in which the names of Congressmen are freely used.

Developments today indicated that officers of the Senate and members of the Lobby committee have been busy secretly for several days securing new information, the nature of which is now concealed. Senator Reed, who went to New York yesterday, is said to have acted for the committee unofficially in obtaining the names of the desired witnesses.

The Mulhall Charges

Interest centered again today about the charges involving many present and former members of Congress contained in the correspondence Mulhall has made public covering his eight years of service as an agent of the National association of manufacturers. Former Presidents Parry and Kirby, of that organization, who were to have sailed today from San Francisco for Australia, cancelled their passage on the demand of the officials, and will come to Washington to testify.

A demand will be made in the House tomorrow by Representatives Sherley, of Kentucky, and Neeley, of Kansas, for an immediate investigation of the Mulhall charges by that body. Both representatives propose a special committee of five to take up the allegations made by Mulhall that the Manufacturers' Association financed campaigns, elected and defeated Congressmen, dictated legislation and controlled the make-up of committees.

The Papers Secured

The Senate committee has secured the Mulhall papers, however, and proposes to hold them for its inquiry. A subpoenae served on Louis J. Seibold, of the New York World, required him to produce the mass of letters and documents turned over to The World by Mulhall and James A. Emery, representative of the National Association of Manufacturers in Washington, also has been subpoenaed to bring all his papers bearing on legislative activities.

Senator Overman declined to reveal the extent of the proposed investigation into paid press bureaus, further than to say that "other developments are coming." The committee learned during its interrogation of so-called "sugar lobbyists" that large sums had been spent for publicity and for contracts covering certain kinds of news service. It is understood that efforts will be made to determine the extent and character of all paid news service connected with the influencing of legislation.

Gompers Issues Report

Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, who figured prominently in Mulhall's story, as the object of a long continued attack by those who attempted to bribe him and force him to give up his fight in behalf of labor legislation, has made public a detailed report of the attempted bribery. It confirms the story told by Mulhall.

The Gompers statement is a report that the labor leader prepared in 1907 after his experiences with Broughton Brandeburg, now a convict in Sing Sing, who claimed to be the employ of the National Association of Manufacturers. Efforts to secure private interviews with Gompers aroused the latter's suspicion and he took a number of labor leaders into his confidence and later made a full report to them of the occurrences that followed.

Gompers met Brandenburg, the report says, under the advice and suggestion of the officials of the American Federation of Labor. Brandenburg, it says, represented himself as in charge of a bureau of the National Association of Manufacturers, organized to "expose" the immorality and dishonesty of the leaders in the labor movement.

According to his report, Gompers led Brandenburg on until the latter proposed that Gompers should prepare a general statement in the nature of a "confession;" should stand for reelection as president of the American Federation of Labor in 1908; and should then resign, leaving the Federation of Labor crippled by his retirement and the exposure of other leaders.

"My object in coming to you is to say I want to save you," Brandenburg is quoted as saying. "I want to save you, and while I do not want to express in specific financial terms what the National Association of Manufacturers is willing to do, yet I can guar-

COTTON MEN ARE RE-INDICTED

Charged With Violation of Anti-Trust Law by Conspiring to Restrict the Sale of Cotton in 190[illegible].

Library of Congress,

New York, July 1.—William [illegible] Brown and Frank B. Hayne, of New Orleans; Eugene G. Scales, of Texas; and Col. Robert M. Thompson, of New York, were re-indicted by the Federal grand jury today, charged with criminal violation of the Sherman anti-trust law in connection with an alleged conspiracy to restrict the sale of cotton during the crop year of 1909-10. Morris H. Rothschild, of Mississippi, a new defendant, was also indicted.

James A. Patton, of Chicago, who pleaded guilty last February to the former indictment and paid a fine of $4,000, and Charles A. Kittle, of New York, who testified before the grand jury, were named as conspirators, but not indicted.

The new bill, containing only one count, covers practically the same allegations as the former indictment of eight counts returned in July, 1910, and demurred to by the defendants. It omits, however, the specific charge that the defendants conspired to operate a "corner." This was done to meet views of Supreme Court Justice Van DeVenter, on the essentials of a "corner" as advanced in his opinion overruling the demurrers.

The present indictment merely charges the defendants with shipping several hundred thousand bales of cotton out of the country during the four months ending September 1st, 1910, and says their purpose was "to prevent actual cotton from becoming available to short sellers—for delivery upon their contracts for sale." It further alleges that part of the plan was to compel the short sellers as well as "spinners of cotton, manufacturers of cotton, and cotton merchants to pay excessive prices in order to obtain cotton for their needs."

The profits of the defendants, according to the old indictment, but not mentioned in this, amounted to $10,000,000, and cotton was advanced from nine cents a pound to 20 cents. The present indictment also omits mention of 24 Southern spinners formerly alleged to have participated in the conspiracy.

Clark W. McKeecher, special assistant attorney general, will co-operate with District Attorney Marshall in prosecuting the cases. All the defendants, with the exception of Col. Thompson, are expected to plead within a day or two. Col. Thompson sailed for Europe about a month ago.

CONFERENCE CALLED.

Consider Means for Improving Facilities for Coastwise Trade.

New Orleans, July 1.—Announcement of plans for a joint conference between Governor of South Atlantic and Gulf coast States and coastwise shippers of rice, cotton, lumber and other Southern products, for consideration of means for improving facilities for coastwise trade is made in a letter received by the Lumber Trade Journal here today from F. H. Farwell, of Orange, Texas, who was designated by Governor Colquitt to arrange for the conference.

Practially all of the Governors of Southern Coast States, and many prominent shippers, according to Mr. Farwell's announcement, have signified their intention of attending the meeting, which will probably be held in New Orleans about September 1st. Especial attention will be given by the conference for means for enlarging the coastwise merchant marine. A radical revision of merchant marine laws probably will be urged.

INTERNATIONAL GOLF MATCH

Between Teams of Professionals Won By Frenchman

LaBoulie, France, July 1.—France today won the international golf match between teams of professionals representing France and the United States. The Frenchmen beat the American players in all of the four single matches, thus with yesterday's two wins in four-ball games, scoring six out of the possible six points.

Arnaud Masey beat Tom McNamara, the Metropolitan open titleholder by 2 up and one to play. Louis Tellier beat Alec Smith, of Wykagyl, the American champion, by 6 up and 4 to play. Jean Gassiatt beat Michael J. Brady, of Wollaston, by 5 up and 3 to play. Pierre Lafitte beat John J. McDermott, United States National champion, by 4 up and 2 to play.

FAVORABLE COTTON WEATHER.

Seasonable Conditions in the Carolinas and Texas.

Washington, July 1.—Favorable cotton weather was reported today by the Weather Bureau in its review for the week ending yesterday.

"In the cotton belt warmth, with local showers over most districts gave favorable conditions in the main, although rain is badly needed in portions of Mississippi and it is getting dry in Arkansas and Oklahoma," it says. "There was an abundance of rain in the Carolinas, and good showers in nearly all portions of Texas have put the soil there in excellent condition."

WILLIAM J. HARRISS.

Takes Oath of Office as Diretor of the Census.

Washington, July 1.—William J. Harris, of Atlanta, Ga., today took the oath of office as director of the census in Secretary of Commerce Redfield's office, in the presence of a number of other officials of the department. The oath was administered by Warren Choate, chief clerk of the Bureau of Corporations.

Mr. Harris for a number of years was secretary to Senator Clay, of Georgia, a member of the Georgia State Senate, and for the past few years was president and director of a fire insurance company.

Laurinburg, N. C., July 1.—In a 11-inning game here today Laurinburg defeated Hamlet by the score of 2 to 1. McNeill, for Laurinburg, fanned 18 of the visitors and held them to eight hits.

CAUCUS NEARING A FINAL AGREEMENT

Decisions Reached on Many Important Contested Points.

UNDERWOOD-SIMMONS BILL

Senate Caucus Resumes Work Today —Finance Committee Democrats Make Recommendations— Tax Exemptions

Washington, July 1.—Senate Democrats approached a final agreement on the Underwood-Simmons tariff bill in caucus late today when they made the following decisions on important contested points:

Mutual life insurance companies were exempted from payment of income tax on earnings returned to policyholders in the form of dividends.

A stamp tax on one-tenth of one cent per pound was agreed to, for all trading in cotton futures, the tax to be refunded where cotton is actually delivered.

An agreement was reached for a vote tomorrow on the Hitchcock amendment proposing a restrictive tax on tobacco production to prevent monopoly.

The Finance committee members held another meeting tonight to decide questions referred back from the caucus. The caucus will resume work tomorrow, and it is believed the final paragraphs will be reached before tomorrow night.

The decision to exempt earnings which mutual life insurance companies later distribute to policyholders came at the end of a long debate. The caucus by a vote of 13 to 1, overturned last night the recommendations of the Finance committee Democrats, that such exemption be made. On a reconsideration today, asked by Senator Lewis, the caucus reversed the action and voted to uphold the committee.

Senator Overman tried vainly to have the tax on cotton futures cut down from the one-tenth of one cent basis proposed by Senator Clark to one-twentieth of one cent.

Senator Hitchcock's fight to secure the adoption of his tobacco tax amendment which embraced the views set forth some time ago by Attorney General McReynolds for curbing the growth of the "trust" was carried on until adjournment tonight and will be renewed tomorrow. Members of the Finance committee decided against the amendment which would impose a heavy tax on production above a certain figure.

Senator Hitchcock also will propose tomorrow a companion amendment for a tax on the production of all corporations that control more than a specified amount of the production in their line of industry; and will attempt to have both amendments made part of the tariff bill.

PROGRESSIVES TO CELEBRATE.

The Colonel Will Speak Blending Patriotism and Politics.

Newport, R. I., July 1.—Progressives will mix patriotism with politics at Newport Beach for the next two days in celebration of the party's anniversary. Col. Roosevelt is announced as the drawing card, but there will be other distinguished speakers, a naval review, music, fireworks and a clambake.

The programme will open tomorrow with an address by Mr. Roosevelt on "The American Navy." The former President will speak under canvass on the beach. A section of the tent will be reserved for blue jackets from the battleships in Narragansett Bay. A clam-bake, with room for 4,000 provided, will follow the address, and then Mr. Roosevelt will speak again, and this time he will talk politics. Former Senator Albert J. Beveridge will also speak.

Thursday will be given over to conferences at which economic and social subjects will be discussed by speakers of prominence.

A "trust regulation" programme was approved at a meeting of the legislative reference committee of the National organization, and it will be referred to a conference of Progressive Congressmen at Washington.

CURRENCY COMMITTEE.

Will Secure Information from the National Banks.

Washington, July 1.—The House Committee on Banking and Currency today authorized Chairman Glass to request the Secretary of the Treasury to secure from National banks information showing the ownership or control of the bonds on which circulation is based; where they were purchased, and at what price; also if the bonds are borrowed, from whom, and on what terms.

Consideration of the bill in executive session by the Democratic members of the House Banking committee today evoked a protest from the Republican members of the committee who passed unanimously a resolution calling for consideration of the bill in open meetings.

STUDY RAILROAD ACCIDENTS

Bureau Investigating Accidents Resulting from Broken Wheels

Washington, July 1.—Secretary Redfield instructed the Commerce Department's Bureau of Standards today to make a study of railroad accidents resulting from broken car wheels and axles. The secretary decided to make the investigation as the result of data gathered by the Inter-State Commerce Commission, which showed that in the 11 years, 1902 to 1912, inclusive, about four times as many wrecks were caused by broken car wheels as by broken rails, and that wrecks from broken axles were half again as numerous as those from broken rails.

LUMBERMEN WIN LOWER RATE

Inter-State Commerce Commission Decides in Favor of Wilmington and Fayetteville Shippers in Rate Case.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Washington, D. C., July 1.—North Carolina shippers have won another victory before the Inter-State Commerce Commission which has decided in favor of a number of shippers, lumber dealers, doing business at Wilmington, Fayetteville, and other points, who charged that the various railroads operating between that section and into Virginia made unreasonable and excessive freight rate charges.

The commission ordered defendant lines to modify the rates so as to make them reasonable in the future.

Representative Webb most probably will make a statement tomorrow on the floor of the House dealing with the suggestion of his name in the Mulhall charges as among those who might be susceptible of favoring the interests. If he does, it will be a strong one and will show his record from first to last. Many persons called on Mr. Webb today to express their confidence in him. P. R. A.

R. & C. LOG TRAIN WRECKED

Cars Dropped at Burned Trestle and One Man Hurt

(Special Star Telegram.)

Lumberton, N. C., July 1.—Early this morning a log train on the R. & C. road was wrecked three miles south of here as the result of a trestle being burned during the night.

The train was running backwards and on account of a fog none of the crew discovered their danger until the train was right on it. Nearly the whole train was piled in a heap. Several members of the crew were injured but only one was hurt bad enough to be carried to the hospital.

The Seaboard wrecking train came down this afternoon to clear the wreck but it will be two days at least before the track can be repaired so that trains can pass over. Transfers will be made at the wreck.

The flying machine to be used here the Fourth arrived this morning.

KOREAN INCIDENT CLOSED.

Investigation of Expulsion of Foreigners from Hemet, Cal., Ended.

Washington, July 1.—Investigation by agents of the State Department of the recent expulsion of a number of Korean fruit pickers from Hemet, Cal., was ordered discontinued today, and the incident is regarded as closed.

Secretary Bryan, who had ordered the inquiry on his own initiative, particularly on account of the pending negotiations between the United States and Japan over the California alien land legislation, received a telegram from the president of the David Lee Korean National Association, informing him that the Koreans involved were not Japanese subjects because they had left their native land before it was annexed by Japan.

'WIRE TAPPERS"

Con Men Fleece Charlotte Man to the Tune of $700

New York, July 1.—Two men described as expert "wire tappers," were arrested this afternoon in company with Edward Lee Baxter Davison, of Charlotte, N. C., whom they are accused of attempting to swindle out of $10,000. The prisoners said they were John Jones and George Harris. They were trapped by Davison, who held a conference with the police on advice of friends after he had lost $700 on a "sure thing" and returned home to get more money.

RECEIVED BY CABLE

Japan's Latest Note of California Alien Land Law

Washington, July 1.—Japan's latest note on the California alien land law arrived by cable today, and the Japanese embassy began preparing it for presentation to Secretary Bryan.

Nothing whatever in the nature of an ultimatum is contained in the document. It simply is a long statement, which, for the sake of preserving the continuity of its case, the Japanese government desires to have considered in connection with its rejoinder of June 4th.

Salt Lake City, Utah., July 1.—Mrs. Augustus Ekman, confessed slayer of her 12-year-old daughter, Frances, whose body was found in a trunk at Ogden, last Saturday, was formally charged with murder in the office of the district attorney today. C. L. Anderson, the woman's first husband, with whom she was on the way to Michigan, was released from custody.

BALKAN SITUATION PUZZLING PROBLEM

Dispatches from Battlefields are of Conflicting Character

ALLIES PREPARING FOR WAR

Peace and War Announced by Servia in One Breath—Powers Are Working Actively to Avert War.

London, July 1.—The Balkan situation is extremely puzzling. The Servian government announces almost in the same breath, the acceptance of Russian arbitration, and the existence of a state of war.

The dispatches which arrived tonight from Belgrade are of the most conflicting character. Some announce that fighting against the Bulgarians has ceased since Monday; others that serious fighting continues, and that the Servians have captured Istip and Krupishte with heavy losses on both sides. All these reports must be regarded with suspicion.

The only tangible fact seems to be that there has been no formal declaration of war or interruption of diplomatic relations as yet. The powers continue working actively to avert a war which might before long involve half of Europe.

The ambassadorial conference met at London today to discuss the situation, but arrived at no decision. Nothing is known concerning Rumania's attitude. A Bulgarian official statement has been issued confirming the capture of Guevgheli, and the throwing back of the Greek forces on the Struma river.

Accusations of massacres and rapine, so common during the last war are again being spread broadcast, especially by the Greeks, although, according to official reports, the opposing States have ordered their armies to remain on the defensive. All of the former allies are making warlike preparations, and are organizing hospital and medical services.

A dispatch from Rome says that Turkey has notified Bulgaria that unless she abandones her claim to a war indemnity, Turkey will join with Servia and Greece in event of hostilities.

"CONVERGENT STRABISMUS."

Or "Cross Eyes" Subject of Paper by Eminent Physician.

Chicago, July 1.—Tucks are being used as a great deal this year among people who neither go where they look, nor look where they go—people suffering from that perplexing ailment known as "cross eyes" to the laiety, and as "convergent strabismus" to men of science. Such was the gist of a paper read by Dr. George A. Suffa, for the American Homeopathic, apthamological, otological, laryngological society, which met here today.

Methods of clearing the complicated visions of these unfortunates consists in taking a truck in one of the muscles that control the eye ball. For years eye doctors have been taking their little shears and nipping the muscle that makes the eyes behave. Dr. Suffa invented the method of tightening up the muscle on the other side just as a mantightens a suspender.

The specialists are meeting in Chicago preliminary to going to Denver for the National meeting of the General Homeopathic Society next week.

Among the novel results of the year's work as reported in today's meeting was the discovery by Dr. Harold Foster, of New York, of a method of removing the tonsile with the fingers.

"It's very simple," said Dr. Foster. "I put the patient to sleep and then reach down and pick them like cherries. It takes about 15 seconds. You must have a strong rip."

JOHN ARMSTRONG CHALONER

Millionaire Sane in One State, Insane in Another

New York, July 1.—The Supreme Court today refused to increase the allowance of $17,000 a year granted to John Armstrong Chaloner, of Virginia, legally insane in this State, but sane under the laws of Virginia where as "Chaloner" he fled after his escape from Bloomingdale Asylum years ago. His estate here is valued at more than a million and a half dollars, and he sought to have his yearly allowance raised to $33,000.

FAVORABLY RECEIVED.

Resolutions to Investigate Delays in Prosecuting Important Cases.

Washington, July 1.—Representative Kahn's resolutions to have the House Judiciary committee investigate delays in the prosecutions of the Diggs-Caminetti white slave cases, and the Western Fuel Company indictnation of United States Attorney McNab, at San Francisco, were favorably acted upon by the committee today, and will be reported to the House tomorrow. In view of developments, however, the House is expected to table the resolutions.

RESTRAINING INJUNCTION.

Means No Negro "Elks" in Buckeye State.

Dayton, O., July 1.—In a common pleas court decision today, Judge A. C. Risinger, of Eaton, O., allowed a perpetual injunction order restraining the negro organization known as the Improved Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks of the World from making further use of the name of "Elks" or any of the designated or emblematic possessions of the white "B. P. O. E." in the State of Ohio.

The Elks have a membership of 400,000 in the United States and 22,500 in the State of Ohio.

WORK OF PLUCKING BOARD

Many of Best Known Officers of the Navy Selected and Placed on Retired List—Daniels' Statement.

Washington, July 1.—Naval officers including several of the best known men in the navy, were selected today by the "plucking board," and were placed on the retired list, along with 10 others, who voluntarily had asked for retirement. Those forced off the active list were:

Capt. Templin M. Potts, commanding the battleship Louisiana.

Capt. Washington I. Chambers, on duty in Washington, in charge of the navy aviation corps.

Capt. John G. Quinby, commanding the naval training station, Norfolk, Va.

Capt. John M. Ellicott, commanding the armored cruiser Maryland on the Pacific station.

Capt. Chester M. Knepper, Naval War College, Newport, R. I.

Commander Clorence M. Stone, on duty in Washington.

Commander Albert L. Norton, on duty in Washington.

Commander Arthur B. Hoff, Naval Academy, Annapolis, Md.

Commander George M. Mitchell, commanding gunboat Paducah.

Lieut. Com. R. S. Douglas, commanding the supply ship Glacier, Pacific station.

Lieut. Com. John L. Sticht, Naval War College, Newport.

Lieut. Com. C. P. Burton, on duty at Newport News.

Lieut. Com. C. T. Wade, on leave in New Jersey.

Lieut. E. E. Scranton, battleship Oregon, Pacific station.

Capt. Potts, who heads the list, was the center of a storm early in the present administration, when it was announced that his promotion to rear admiral would be held up until he had had more extended sea service. He will retire in his present grade, as will all of those who retired today, and will receive three-quarters pay.

In announcing the work of the "plucking board" Secretary Daniels issued the following statement:

"The most unpleasant duty of the year was performed today at the Navy Department when the board of selection for retirement made its report to Secretary Daniels.

"Secretary Daniels took the report to the White House for approval of the President, who remarked upon his grave countenance. Mr. Daniels replied that the law governing the action of the board was like that of the Medes and Persians; which could not be changed. After the President affixed his signature the Secretary notified each officer by telegraph of the action of the board in his case, so that he might be informed before the general public would have the information from the press.

There were other applications for voluntary retirement, but as the acceptance of these is in the discretion of the President, the latter decided to accept only those of officers who had to their credit 20 or more years of service after completing the course at Annapolis.

"In former years officers retiring either compulsorily or voluntarily were retired in the next higher grade. Congress, however, by an act passed last August so amended that law that retirements must be made in the grade in which the officers are at the time. So this is the first occasion on which the amended law has operated."

HORRIBLE FATE OF SAWYER.

Falls on Saw and Half His Face is Cut Away.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Kinston, N. C., July 1.—As the result of a very peculiar accident at his saw mill near Ayden, C. E. Smith is lingering between life and death at the McDaniel Memorial Hospital here.

Smith is the proprietor of a small saw and ginning plant three or four miles from the Pitt county town, and while at work about a circular saw he slipped and fell, striking his face on the jagged teeth of the rapidly revolving saw. His nose and about half of his face was cut off, and he lost much blood.

Only temporary medical aid could be given him at Ayden and he was rushed to this city. The injuries, unusual as they are, were hard to treat. The victim is slightly improved in condition after remaining some hours in a state which the attendants momentarily expected would end in death, but his condition still is exceedingly critical. Should Smith recover he will be horribly disfigured.

FATAL LOVERS' QUARREL.

Durham Girl Drinks Carbolic Acid. Unrequitted Love.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Durham, N. C., July 1.—Lillie Branch committed suicide here yesterday by drinking carbolic acid because of a quarrel with her sweetheart. She first tried to borrow a pistol from her landlady, who refused; whereupon she asked if one of the woman's children could go to a drug store for her and the landlady consented. She wrote a note to the druggist, requesting carbolic acid to kill bed bugs and the druggist sent her the deadly acid. She immediately drank it. She was a cotton mill operator, and came here from Stuart, Va., two months ago.

KILLED ON SEMAPHORE.

Albemarle Young Man Electrocuted on Signal Tower.

Albemarle, N. C., July 1.—Spencer Watkins was electrocuted at noon yesterday when he attempted to climb the metal rungs of a semaphore ladder at the Southern station here. He had started to ascend for the purpose of finding the cause of the failure of the electric semaphone to work properly, and had no sooner touched the ladder than he cried for help. Others tried to jerk him away and were themselves severely affected. Watkins died in a few moments after he was taken from the ladder. The Southern has installed these electric signal towers on its lines through this section.

New York, July 1.—All grades of refined sugar were advanced five cents a hundred pounds today.

PEACE SURMOUNTS WAR ANIMOSITIES

Blue and Gray Harmoniously Blend at Gettysburg.

DEEDS OF VALOR REHEARSED

Union and Confederate Veterans Assemble on Historic Battlefield Celebrating 50th Anniversary of Struggle.

Gettysburg, July 1.—In the pitiless glare of a sun that sent the mercury bubbling over the hundred mark and made clothes a burden and a bath only a delusion, the armies of the North and the South today began the formal exercises set to mark the semi-centennial of Gettysburg.

Veterans to the number of 15,000, the army officers estimated, filed into the big tent set apart for the exercises, sat in the haze of heat for two hours, and shook the camp with their cheers when the speakers made reference to a re-united nation. Every seat under the canvas was taken long before Secretary of War Garrison and Governor Tener, the orators of the day, came chugging up in their automobiles.

Although the men in gray were far out-numbered by those in blue, there were possibly a thousand Southerners in the amphitheatre, and what they lacked in numbers they made up in lung power. When Governor Tener finished his speech, Gen. Bennett H. Young, commander in chief of the Confederate Veterans, rose slowly and bowed to him.

"I can give you something that no one else can give you," he said. "We will now give you the rebel yell."

Nine famous Confederate generals and a thousand veterans of the South gave it so loudly that it was heard far back in the camp toward Gettysburg.

When Gen. Young stepped forward to deliver his address, he was greeted with wild enthusiasm, the Union veterans, led by Commander-in-Chief Beers, giving him three lusty cheers and a "tiger."

He took as his key-note the conviction of each side in the great struggle that each fought for a principle which each believed was the truth. One of his opening statements was that the Northern soldiers deserved more credit than the Southerners, for the promulgation and successful realization of the present great reunion, which he characterized as the greatest movement of its kind in the world.

This compliment to the Northern veterans was greeted with loud cries of "no", to which Gen. Young quickly replied, "I know better than you do." His speech captured the audience and he was overwhelmed by handshakes.

Among the 200 guests on the platform were Governors Mann, Virginia; McCreary, Kentucky, and Eberhardt, Minnesota; Senator Penrose, of Pennsylvania, and the following Confederate generals: Robinson, Texas; West, Georgia; Thomas J. Shaffer, Louisiana; A. D. Williams, Florida; E. M. Law, Florida and Carr, North Carolina.

The invocation was delivered by the Rev. George Edwards Lovejoy, chaplain in chief of the Grand Army of the Republic.

The benediction was to have been delivered by Rev. H. M. Hamill, chaplain general of the Confederate Veterans, who did not appear.

Fifty Thousand Present.

All through the night the veterans poured into camp, took graciously of what small blessings fate passed out to them for a few hours and found permanent quarters when the hard pressed regular army officers could get them ready. Late today Major Normoyle, second in command to Brig. Gen. Liggett, estimated that more than 50,000 men are quartered in a camp intended to hold 40,000.

Through persistent efforts, however, every man has been cared for as well as possible. Thousands have been given quarters in the big tent and hundreds of others in smaller tents used in the day time for speech making and reunions. No officer cared to estimate the number of Southerners here. There are more than 3,000 from Virginia and it is probable that one-quarter of the total number is represented by the men from Dixie.

Many veterans got no further than one meal in camp and one look at the crowded tents and then started back home as quickly as they could go. The real exodus, however, will not begin until Thursday or Friday, for thousands who might have left sooner expect to stay over the Fourth of July to see President Wilson.

Pickett's Charge.

Before the morning exercises began and after the veterans quartered in the big tent made their slim toilets the reunions of regiments and companies and squadrons began. Confederates who were in Pickett's charge took keen delight in marching with fife and drum to Spangler's woods, where the columns of Pickett formed on July 3rd, '63, to begin the charge that marked the high tide of the Lost Cause. They did not charge again like they once did, but they remembered, or thought they remembered, and nobody said them nay, every stick and stone and even the blades of grass in that wide stretch where death kept step with them before.

On the edge of the Union side of the camp the veterans of Meredith's iron brigade and of Pettigrew's brigade of North Carolina got together to go over the story of the fight of the first of July. The struggle between the regiments of the two brigades was the most disastrous in number of those killed in the entire three days fighting and was seldom equalled in the whole history of the war. They met today, many of them, for the first time since '63.

Heat Prostrations.

The doctors were amazed today at the way the veterans withstood the

GIANTS HAD A WALK-OVER

Easily Took Second Straight From the Phillies—Cubs Near Third—Braves Took Second Straight. Reds Won from Cards.

The New York Giants will return to New York tonight, leaders of the National League for the first time since the beginning of the season, for whatever the outcome of today's final engagement with the Phillies, their easy victory of yesterday insures their standing at the return for the beginning of the engagement at Brooklyn tomorrow, where a double-header is scheduled to be played.

Just another demonstration of the irony of fate is the position the Giants will be placed in at this series with the Brooklyn Dodgers, after the Flatbushwhackers did such a notable part in the placing of the Giants in first position by three victories last week from the Phillies.

M. Richard de Marquis, alias Marquard, was on the mound for the Giants and the lean Frenchman was almost invincible, holding the Phils to four safe bingles, while Manager Dooin sent in four pitchers, who let loose a total of 17 base hits.

Chicago eased up a little nearer to Brooklyn by winning yesterday's game from the Pittsburg Pirates, Heinie Zimmerman's triple following effective singling, was the means of packing the game for the Cubs.

The Boston Braves took their second straight from the Brooklyn Dodgers yesterday afternoon, scoring five runs, enough to win the game, in the fourth inning.

The Cincinnati Reds won a batfest from the St. Louis Cardinals, Rube Benton, the North Carolina southpaw, occupying the mound for the Reds.

Giants Had Walk-Over.

Philadelphia, July 1.—New York had a walk-over in the game here today, winning by 10 to 0, and increasing its lead in the National League race. Marquard was almost invincible. Manager Dooin sent in four pitchers. There was no demonstration of any kind following the striking of Manager McGraw by Pitcher Brennan, of Philadelphia, after yesterday's game.

Chicago, July 1.—Zimmerman's triple following singles by Evers and Schulte gave Chicago their second straight victory over Pittsburg today, the score being 3 to 2. Wilson's home run drive to the right field sign board, following Miller's single saved the visitors a shut-out. The game was a pitchers' battle between Cheney and Robinson with honor in favor of the former.

Braves Again Win.

Brooklyn, July 1.—Boston took the second straight game from Brooklyn today 6 to 3. The home team started good, but the visitors fell on Curtis in the fourth and batted him out of the box, scoring five runs. Yingling checked the fusillade, but Rudolph tightened up in the last sevn innings. Fast fielding featured the contest.

Cincinnati, July 1.—Cincinnati indulged in a batting bee and easily defeated St. Louis today 11 to 4. Griner, who started the game for St. Louis, was knocked out of the box in the sixth inning. Steele, who succeeded him was hammered for three hits and two runs. Benton for Cincinnati was also hit hard.

WILL INVESTIGATE ASSAULT

On Manager McGraw by Pitcher Brennan, of Philadelphia

New York, July 1.—Although no complaint has been filed as yet, it was stated today at National League headquarters that President Lynch would investigate the assault made upon John McGraw, manager of the New York Giants, by Pitcher Brennan, of the Philadelphia team, after the game in Philadelphia yesterday. President Lynch was expected back in New York late this afternoon. Secretary Heydler said no mention of the trouble was made in the umpire's report of the game.

While it is customary to take up such matters upon formal complaints filed by club managers or presidents, it is nevertheless within the power of the league president to investigate violations of the league regulations and impose punishment without waiting for complaints or protests.

TENNIS TOURNAMENT.

Australian Sportsman Wins Over German Champion.

Wimbledon, England, July 1.—Stanley N. Doust, the Australian tennis team captain, today beat Oscar Kreutzer, the German champion, in the semi-final round of the all-England gentlemen's singles championship lawn tennis tournament by three straight sets, 6-3, 6-2, 6-3.

Doust will meet Maurice E. McLoughlin, the American champion in the final round either tomorrow or Thursday to decide who is to play A. F. Wilding for the title.

McLoughlin defeated Douse in the Davis cup singles played in New York on June 9th, by three straight sets.

Revival Services Continue.

The revival services which have been in progress the past week at the tent, corner Fourth and Castle streets, conducted by Rev. H. A. Forrester, a minister of the Wesleyan Methodist church, continue to attract large congregations. It had been planned to close the meeting Sunday night, but on account of the great interest shown it was decided to continue them until next Sunday. The services are held each night beginning at 8:15 o'clock.

RECORD RUN BY CRUISER.

Trip From Wilmington to Wrightsville Beach in Six Hours.

A record run was made last Saturday from Wilmington to Wrightsville Beach by the 27-foot raised deck cruiser, Mamie, equipped with double cylinder 10-horse power Bridgeport motor, which left Wilmington at 1:40 P. M. and arrived at the trestle over Banks' Channel at Wrightsville Beach at 7:50 P. M., making the trip in six hours and 10 minutes. The run was made without stop and against a strong flood tide.

The crew consisted of Messrs. W. T. Atkinson, owner; L. B. Pearce, pilot; Charles H. Darden, entertainer; and Dan B. King, prospector. The trip was made without mishap and the cruiser is now safely anchored just below the trestle. During the next several weeks it will be used by the above persons and their friends for outside fishing, and afterward brought back to this city.

N. C. PINE ASSOCIATION.

Will Hold Monthly Meeting at Seashore Hotel on July 24th.

The regular monthly meeting of the North Carolina Pine Association, a lumber organization, will be held at the Seashore Hotel, Wrightsville Beach, on July 24th. There will be two sessions, one in the morning and one in the afternoon. Mr. R. A. Parsley, of the Hilton Lumber Co., of this city, took up the matter with Capt. Hinton several weeks ago, and last week Mr. W. B. Roper, the secretary, of Norfolk, Va., wrote that the meeting would be held at Wrightsville on July 24th.

There will be in attendance between 35 and 40 members. It is probable that a majority of them will spend some time at the beach. The meetings of the association are held monthly at different points within the State.

Chadbourn, N. C., July 1.—The local team defeated the famous "Bloomer Girls" in a fast game this afternoon, score 2 to 1. The features of the game were the pitching of Devane, for Chadbourn, who struck out 15 of the "wigsmen", and the playing of the left fielder for the Bloomers.

"REST CRUISE"

President Wilson Leaves Washington Aboard the Mayflower

Washington, July 1.—President Wilson left Washington today for a three days' "rest cruise" on the Mayflower in lower Chesapeake bay. His only companion is his physician, Dr. Cary T. Grayson.

The President expects to return to the White House Thursday night. He will go to the Gettysburg reunion Friday, where he will make a brief address, then proceed to Cornish, N. J., to be three days with his family.

KILLED RATTLESNAKE

Mr. Siras Robinson Shot a Big One at Hilton Bridge

A rattlesnake five feet four inches long and thick as a man's arm, was shot and killed by Mr. Siras Robinson at Hilton bridge yesterday afternoon. Last night he displayed the skin, stuffed with bran, at The Star office and a number of the stiff-legged old gentlemen who inhabit the place shied around the varmint's remains like skittish old horses when a piece of paper blows along the street. The skin was examined with care. There were 14 rattles and a button, showing that the serpent was in the 15th year. Mr. Robinson cut off the head and pealed the skin back. He hopes to have it tanned.

WITH THE MOVIES

Four more of those big film sensations today at the Bijou. The huge audiences will, of course, find plenty of solid comfort, as the Bijou is ever delightful. And that tiny price—5 cents, afternoon and night—remains. "A Mistaken Accusation," is the leading dramatic for today, being an Essanay of an Italian accused of kidnapping. There is another dramatic in "The Hand of Fate," vividly depicting what became of a foreman of a rock quarry gang who was a bully. "The Translation of a Savage" is Edison's latest and best. Another great Pathe Weekly is also one of today's features. After detailing much information it ends in rousing fashion with a "Mutt and Jeff" scene.

The Grand Today

The handsome Grand always throbs with the excitement of the times and its enterprising management is ever doing something that keeps The Grand "pulling off" big and timely stunts. For today The Grand presents "John Burns, of Gettysburg," which precisely fits the times, in view of the great reunion now in progress at Gettysburg and in which the hosts of the Blue and Gray are clasping hands. The film is Kalem's most pretentious effort and is a picturization of Bret Harte's famed poem. Lubin's noted dramatic, "Retribution," is also a star today, and there is another superb film in a roaring comedy, "Taming the Spooks," Cines' best laugh effort. The Grand will also offer special music today, the incidental numbers to the great film, noted above, being particularly stirring. But the price of admission will be the same—5 cents afternoon and night.

CHICKEN CASE SETTLED

Justice Bornemann Exercises Rare Wisdom in Decision

By using the expert wisdom that Solomon exercised when confronted by a similar situation, Justice G. W. Bornemann yesterday solved a knotty problem. Last week Phoebe Stirling, colored, instituted suit in his court for the recovery of one yellow chicken in the possession of one Eliza Howe, also colored. She alleged that the chicken had been taken from her while Eliza contended that she had bought it. In all his judicial experience Justice Bornemann had never before been confronted with such an intricate question, and he asked the contending parties to wait until yesterday for a decision in the case.

Yesterday he heard the evidence again, and each one was firm in her assertion that the chicken was hers. Justice Bornemann then suggested, as Solomon of old had done in the case of the disputed possession of the infant, that since the chicken belonged to both of them that they divide it between them. To this Eliza Howe demurred saying that she would give up the pullet rather than have this done. Justice Bornemann then declared that she was the rightful owner and the case was dismissed.

Burglars Enter Residence.

Burglars are thought to have entered the home of Judge George Rountree, at Carolina Heights Tuesday night. A report was made to Sheriff Cowan at Greenville Sound, who asked the city police department to make investigation. Judge Rountree and family are spending the Summer at Wrightsville Beach, and it is stated that members of the household were at the residence Tuesday and that they did not leave any lights burning. Tuesday night one of the lights was seen burning, and it was supposed that someone had entered the home. So far as could be learned yesterday no property had been missed.

ATHLETICS AGAIN WINNERS

Defeated Yankees Again Yesterday but Chance Protested Game—White Sox Near Second Place—Senators Beat Red Sox

The Athletics hit Frank Chance's P. L. Yankees the second time in the same spot yesterday, winning the game by a two to one score. However, Chance protested the game on a ruling of the umpire who was hit by a thrown ball, and hopes to get it thrown out.

The Chicago White Sox came up to within forty-four points of second place by winning again yesterday from the Detroit Tigers. The Sox were outhit two to one by the locals, but managed to bunch their few safeties for runs.

The Washington Senators had another win in their system and made the Boston Red Sox Champs the victims for the second successive time yesterday afternoon.

Senators Subdued Champs

Boston, July 1.—Williams' triple with the bases full made effective Washington's ninth-inning rally today and the Senators won 7 to 4. Manager Griffith called 17 men into play for Washington which entered the ninth with the score 4 to 3 against them. The Senators checked a rally by Boston in its half of the ninth by a speedy double play.

Chance Protests Game

New York, July 1.—Frank Chance protested today's game which Philadelphia won from New York 2 to 1, basing his protest on Umpire Dineen's ruling in the fourth inning when he sent Borton back to bat after a scratch single. Barry had hit Umpire Dineen on the head in relaying the ball to first base. Hartzell crossed the plate and Borton reached second, but both men were sent back.

Detroit, July 1.—Chicago took the second of the series from Detroit 3 to 2 today, though outhit by the home club. Cicotte yielded seven hits in six innings and retired, Scott kept the game well in hand. Willett on the mound for Detroit, pitched an excellent game. Cobb injured his knee sliding to second in the eighth.

FELL IN RIVER; HELD BALL.

Youth Catches Fly and Gets a Bath, But is Game.

While the Lilacs and the Roses, says the New York Sun, were playing ball on North river, Charles Rocks, aged eight, farming for the Lilacs in left field, got a chance at a long fly. He ran and caught the ball, and fell head over heels into the river, and couldn't swim. Two other players swam out 50 feet to where the tide had carried the boy and pulled him ashore. The little wet left fielder still had the ball clutched in his hand. He ought to make the Giants some day.

New Numbers Are Required

The new State law with reference to registration of automobiles and proper display of numbers went into effect yesterday. The law requires that automobiles shall have displayed only one number, furnished by the Secretary of State, which is to be placed in the rear where the tail end light will shine upon it. The numbers this year are in red on white plates. Automobilists using any other colors are liable to be arrested for an infraction of the law. The numbers are furnished only from the office of the Secretary of State.

The bridge has been open for traffic for several days.

KINK IN AUTOMOBILE LAW

Manufacturer's Tax of $500 May Apply When Second-hand Machines are Traded for New Ones—Other Raleigh Notes

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., July 1.—Automobile dealers are very much exercised over a feature of the new automobile tax in the revenue bill whereby it is prescribed that no automobile can be sold in this State unless the manufacturers have previously paid an annual manufacturer's license tax of $500.

State Treasurer Lacy tells the dealers that he rules that this must apply to second-hand machines taken as part payment for new machines as well as to new machines sold first hand by dealers. The dealers insist that a ruling of this sort would practically put them out of business as there are numbers of the makes of machines in the hands of users who want new machines with their old machines to go in part payment and if these unlicensed machines canot be handled by the dealers there will be a great hardship and loss of business imposed.

All agreed that the intent of the Legislature was to impose this tax on the sale of new machines sold by agents of the manufacturers or dealers, and not to apply to sales of second-hand machines. It is expected that the issue will be settled soon either by a ruling by the attorney general that the treasurer need not enforce his ruling, or through a test case to settle the intent of the Legislature.

State Treasurer Lacy says the manufacturers are coming forward now very generally with the annual $500 tax which was really due June 1st.

Hon. George W. Connor has written Governor Craig notifying him of his qualification as Superior Court judge through due oath of office and of the filing of his resignation as member and Speaker of the House of Representatives of the General Assembly. Later there will have to be a special lection in Wilson county for his successor as a legislator. Then his place will have to be filled in the Speakership and as a member of the Constitutional Amendment Commission.

The Eastern Carolina Internal Revenue district, Wheeler Martin, collector, passed the five-million dollar mark in receipts for the fiscal year ending June 30th, the receipts for the year aggregating $5,517,138, a gain of $1,146,138 over the previous year. Part of this big increase is due to the South Carolina district having been added on to Eastern Carolina during the year. However, the Eastern Carolina receipts would have exceeded five million without the additional revenue from South Carolina.

A charter is issued for the Washington Buggy Co., of Washington, N. C., capital $300,000 authorized and $200,000 subscribed by George Hackney, Jr., S. H. Williams and William Rumley for manufacturing and dealing in buggies, carriages, automobiles and other vehicles, taking over the business heretofore conducted by George Hackney, Jr., under the name of the Washington Buggy Co.

Governor Craig comes from Asheville Friday to Greensboro to deliver the address for the Guilford battleground celebration. He wrote the executive office here that he will arrive in Raleigh on the 7:30 P. M. train Friday, but it develops that there is planned a big luncheon to follow the exercises at the battleground and the Governor will be expected to stay over for this. In that event he cannot reach here until Saturday morning. However, in either event, he will be in the executive office Saturday forenoon.

Ambassador Jusserand, of France, has accepted an invitation to be the principal speaker for the next session of the North Carolina State Literary and Historical Association this Fall. Secretary R. D. W. Connor and Dr. D. H. Hill just back from Washington, called at the French ambassy with Senator Lee S. Overman, being received most cordially and informally, and were assured by the distinguished ambassador that he will accept the invitation and most probably discuss some phase of the French and Colonial relations during the Revolutionary war period. He spoke enthusiastically of the address by Senator Lodge before the association in 1910, which he had read.

MR. JOHN F. CLARK DEAD

Prominent Citizen of Manchester, Passed Away Suddenly Saturday

Mr. C. H. Clark, of this city, has returned from Manchester, Cumberland county where he was called Saturday night on account of the sudden death of his father, Mr. John F. Clark, who died seated at his desk in the office of his store at Manchester Saturday afternoon at 6:30 o'clock, death being due to heart disease.

Mr. Clark was a merchant and large planter and was one of the wealthiest and most prominent citizens of his community. He was held in the highest esteem by all who knew him and the announcement of his passing caused deep regret throughout that section of the county. He had accumulated considerable property and leaves a large estate.

Surviving are his wife and six children, these being Mrs. W. A. Nicholson, of Godwin, N. C.; Mr. C. H. Clark, Wilmington; John F., Jr., Herbert S., and W. J. Clark and Miss Nellie Clark, of Manchester. They have the tenderest sympathy of a great many friends in their bereavement.

Br. Clark was in the 59th year of his age. He was born in Cumberland county and spent all of his life at Manchester. When he first began his business career he was associated with the Murchisons and McDiarmids, afterwards going into the naval stores business and still later into the cotton mill business, being owner and operator of the Marnchester Cotton Mills from 1888 to 1890, and was connected with the mills after the panic in 1893 to 1898, when the plant changed hands again.

The funeral was held Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock from the Church of the Covenant, Presbyterian, at Manchester, conducted by Rev. Watson Fairley, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, of Fayetteville. The interment was in the church graveyard. There were a large number of relatives and friends present to pay a last sad tribute of respect to the memory of Mr. Clark, who was held in so high esteem by all.

Among the relatives form a distance attending the funeral were: Mr. N. E. Clark, a brother, of Asheville; Mr. John Clark, a nephew, of Greensboro; Mr. Louis Russell, of Jonesboro; Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Russell and daughter, of Jonesboro; Mr. John Cagle, of Durham; Mrs. W. H. Howell, of Wilmington, and Mr. W. A. Nicholson, who is at present making Wilmington his home.

JUDGE ROUNTREE SWORN IN

ble in saying it now that he becomes judge in reality.

He will hold his first court in New Hanover county, having been recently appointed by Governor Craig to hold the special two weeks' term of court here beginning Monday, July 4th. For the remainder of this year he will hold courts in this judicial district which consists of New Hanover, Brunswick, Columbus and Pender counties.

Homer L. Lyon, Esq., of Whiteville, the new solicitor, will also begin his official duties with the holding of the special term of court here beginning July 14th.

At the meeting of the bar yesterday Eugene S. Martin, Esq., was appointed chairman of the committee to make arrangements for the banquet which will be given at one of the hotels at Wrightsville Beach on the night of July 8th. This will be an elaborate affair, and it is expected that it will be attended by practically all the lawyers of this district.

Law Firm Dissolves.

By reason of the fact that Hon. George Rountree has been appointed to the position of judge of the Superior Court, the law firm of Rountree & Carr was yesterday dissolved, this being the beginning of Judge Rountree's term as stated. J. O. Carr, Esq., the junior member of the firm, and recognized as one of the leading lawyers in the State, will continue the business of the firm in his individual name at the same offices heretofore occupied in the Garrell Building. The firm of Rountree & Carr was established in April, 1899, and has been in existence continually for 14 years. During this period the firm has appeared in some very important litigation, both in the State and Federal Courts of North Carolina, having handled many large and important cases. The firm has had one of the largest practices of any in the State, and it will be carried on by Mr. Carr in the same able manner that has marked the work of the firm.

Hooray! Baby To Rule the House

No Longer Do Women Fear The Greatest of All Human Blessings.

It is a joy and comfort to know that those much-talked-of pains and other distresses that are said to precede child-bearing may easily be avoided. No woman need fear the slightest discomfort if she will fortify herself with the well-known and time-honored remedy, "Mother's Friend."

This is a most grateful, penetrating, external application that at once softens and makes pliant the abdominal muscles and ligaments. They naturally expand without the slightest strain, and thus not only banish all tendency to nervous, twitching spells, but there is an entire freedom from nausea, discomfort, sleeplessness and dread that so often leave their impress upon the babe.

The occasion is therefore one of unbounded, joyful anticipation, and too much stress can not be laid upon the remarkable influence which a mother's happy, pre-natal disposition has upon the health and fortunes of the generation to come.

Mother's Friend is recommended only for the relief and comfort of expectant mothers, thousands of whom have used and recommend it. You will find it on sale at all drug stores at $1.00 a bottle. Write to-day to the Bradfield Regulator Co., 130 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., for a most instructive book on this greatest of all subjects, motherhood.

It is proposed to license lobbyists. It seems that they had all the license necessary for their business.

The man who "says just every thing he thinks" doesn't say many things to justify his conversation.

Says a writer: "Cultivate individuality." The trouble is that some people mistake a peculiarity for individuality.

Men are getting out of the way of treating. They see the other fellow first or don't let the other fellow see them at all.

A Bavarian Duke, aged 82, is seeking a divorce. Unless he is very rich, he won't have to worry himself while seeking it.

Some men are smart while others are shrewd. A smart man never does anything to get in jail, but a shrewd one has all he can do to keep from getting in.

The fact that some interests recognize the necessity of lobbying shows that they regard it as risky to leave everything to Congress or the Legislature.

A knocker who can't change a condition ought to kick himself for lacking initiative, the same as Old Towser when he barks at the moon just to hear himself bark.

We have never been known to go on a hunger strike. In fact, when a hunger strike is on, we wish to be called in as a strike-breaker. Selah—and also nota bene.

Liquor drinking, says Lillian Russell, robs women of their beauty. It robs men of their senses. Without beauty a woman would have no advantage over a man without any sense.

A man in a nearby town received a barrel of beer for the Fourth of July. Every man in town, except the preacher, kindly notified him that his beer was in the depot. His mistake was in not ordering a brewry.

The finest crops of corn and wheat and the biggest cotton crop in the history of the country are reported by the Agricultural Department at Washington. Even the crops seem to grow better without Republican hot air.

A professional lobbyist has created a great sensation at Washington by making an astounding statement involving Senators and Representatives. The legal consideration involved is whether a professional lobbyist is really a credible witness.

It is said Col. Roosevelt has written a letter full of encouragement to the Progressive party of Connecticut. The third party there stands up as one man, and doubtless it was necessary to write him a letter to keep him from getting tired and quitting the party.

When a product is in great demand it is a good article to be manufactured. It is said the Ford Motor Company is about to divide a profit of $10,000,000 among its stockholders. Why can't we keep some of our automobile money at home by making some of our own automobiles? We certainly could make a chug wagon of some description.

MAKE WILMINGTON FAMOUS.

More or less isolated because of its location in the extreme southeastern part of the State, and having, by reason of its being a port, interests that differ somewhat from those of interior towns, Wilmington does not know enough of the rest of North Carolina and the rest of the State does not know enough of Wilmington, for their mutual advantage. Wilmington is foreign territory to a large number of North Carolinians.

It would be a fine thing for both city and State if the two could be drawn closer together, for in the ultimate analysis their interests are identical. Wilmington ought to do what it can to remove the impression from the average citizen's mind up-State that this city is something more than a good place for fishing and bathing and excursioning; that opportunity's Winter address as well as its Summer address, is Wilmington, North Carolina's own premier port, with deep water communication with all the world, through which North Carolina manufacturers and merchants can receive freight and export goods at a great saving to them and their trade.

There are many North Carolinians who know much more about cities in adjoining States than they do about Wilmington. This ought not to be. Wilmington ought to do something to bring out more plainly that it is in North Carolina and that it holds the key to the transportation puzzle now agitating the minds of business men from Manteo to Murphy.

Now, right now, is the time for the city to make its efforts in this direction. The iron is hot and it is a good time to strike. Never before has public attention been so concentrated on the potentialities of the port as at the present time because of the discussion of the proposal to free North Carolina from the hurtful and expensive discrimination in freight rates now practiced by the inter-State railroads, by development of the port's latent resources.

A scheme that has been carried out profitably by live wire cities in other States, to focus attention on them and their advantages and business facilities, is the special train idea, and Wilmington could do a good deal worse than investing funds in a Wilmington train that would visit the business and manufacturing centers of the State, spreading the propaganda of commercial salvation through the development of shipping here, and putting Wilmington on the mental Tar Heel map.

That idea is sound, logical, attractive. It has caught the attention of Carolina business men. Who knows but that such a missionary expedition into the interior would result in the fruition of the hopes of all?

JUDGE ROUNTREE.

The Hon. George Rountree, of this city, recently appointed by Governor Craig to be judge of the Superior Court of the Eighth Judicial District, created by the 1913 General Assembly, took the oath of office yesterday in the Court House of the county of New Hanover. The bar of Wilmington made it the occasion of honoring the judge in a way that must have been exceedingly pleasing to him, but the sense of the bar so admirably expressed by its nestor, the Hon. Eugene S. Martin, might, with equal heartiness, have been expressed on behalf of the entire city of Wilmington. The amenities emanating from the bar constituted a fraternal action of the whilom brother lawyers of Wilmington's honored citizen, but it was representative of the whole community's high respect and honor for their townsman and fellow citizen.

The sentiments expressed by Mr. Martin could not have been delivered by anyone more fitted to observe the niceties of the occasion and to convey the sense of the members of the bar in appropriate words of sincerity and eloquence. No portion of the community is so sensible of the great ability and high character of Judge Rountree as those with whom he has striven mightily at the bar, and coming from his fellow lawyers through their honorable spokesman, it was a high tribute from those who know him best and hold a brief to speak for him.

Judge Rountree is the kind of man that would hide from a demonstration in his honor, but he had to take it as one that all of us know was eminently due and worthily bestowed. It is the bench that is elevated by bestowal of the ermine on men with such eminent legal qualifications and versatility of learning as are possessed by the judge of the Eighth District. North Carolina is to be congratulated when her judiciary is selected from among men of profound legal knowledge, high intellectual attainments, and unsullied reputation. All these are dominated by the judicial temperament of the able lawyer who now wears the ermine that is typified in North Carolina by knowledge of the law and the constitution.

A PORT ASSOCIATION.

Once again The Star wants to hammer it into the business men of Wilmington that the city should have a port association to promote the interests of the port and study its possibilities for commerce. Such an association would embrace all interests and be dominated by none, its one special purpose being for the upbuilding of Wilmington's commerce and the good of the port and the State of North Carolina through its only hopeful ocean gateway.

No one man can be supposed to be the guardian and sponsor for the port of Wilmington, and its various and varied interests. No group of men can act for the port like a port organization could. Daily we see the great necessity for doing something to utilize the one great potential ocean factor that we have for making Wilmington a commercial and manufacturing city.

Wilmington isn't even mentioned in some of the most important publications of the Hydrographic office at Washington, although its commerce is three times greater than several ports that appear in the record. Whose fault is that? It is our fault. We are not live enough, else it could not possibly be so.

On Sunday, the Washington Times published a report that the Charles W. Morse steamship interests would establish lines between New York and Norfolk and between Norfolk and Washington. That is highly important if it be true. Nevertheless, other steamship companies also are casting about for new openings, while Wilmington is blissfully ignorant of it and utterly negligent of the requirements for securing additional steamship service for either coastwise or inter-oceanic water traffic. The main question is, when are we going to wake up and get in the game?

GETTYSBURG.

When the Republic has traveled far enough away from the Gettysburg semi-centennial celebration to see in retrospect clearly this great and significant event, it will probably realize keenly that in all the history of the American nation, crowded as it is with world events, not one tops the reunion of Blue and Gray on the battlefield where the fate of the Confederacy was decided and where the everlasting union of the American States was cemented in the blood of the Republic's choicest manhood. To us it has sublimity that is sufficient to halt this continent's teeming millions and cause them to uncover in the presence of such thrilling evidence of the working of a plan divine to mould America into a compact agency for the promotion of "the brotherhood of man, the federation of the world."

The Mount Olive Tribune under date of June 26th, issued a "progress edition" that was a hummer in all respects. Attractively printed, the articles and illustrations were of a quality that would be a credit to any newspaper plant. Calypso and the county around about were also featured. The pictures of growing crops were very striking. That is a fine country and it is served by a perfectly good newspaper. We congratulate Editor Fred R. Mintz.

A Houston man who is visiting New York complains to the police that he has been robbed of two diamond rings valued at $500. All he can recollect is that he had the rings on his watch fob. There is no longer any room to doubt that the man hailed from Houston.

A party which desires to visit the Arctic regions is appealing for $10,000 more to enable them to make the trip. Most of us don't care a dang about financing their trip but they can get rich quickly by selling us a lot of Arctic weather on the installment plan.

CURRENT COMMENT.

In appointing a committee for the Gettysburg celebration, Speaker Clark discovered that there was not a single Union veteran on the Republican side of the House. Now that we come to think of it, we must admit that last year was a hard one on Republicans. And then, the world has but very little use for old men.—Chester (Pa.) Republican.

A. J. Maxwell, the very efficient and popular clerk of the Corporation Commission, advocates the establishment of a million dollar steamship line from Wilmington to New York as a solution of the railroad rate problem. We agree with Charity and Children that it is a fine suggestion provided the million dollars can be found. In the meantime, there should be no letting up in the fight the State is making for just rates.—Webster's Weekly.

The Wilmington Star says: "Wall Street calamity howlers who were threatening a panic, did not know Secretary McAdoo had enough money in the treasury to paste their little old panic over with $1,000 bills. Wall Street's efforts to undermine confidence shows that some other street ought to be recognized in the new currency bill." Secretary McAdoo doesn't need to have the money. If he hasn't got it he can print it.—Jacksonville Times-Union.

News from Washington indicates that the abandoned buildings along the water front in Wilmington, condemned for the site of the new custom house, will not much longer arouse the comment of visitors. The town now has an appropriation large enough to make a start and as Wilmington has been placed ninth in the list of custom house cities to be first attended to, we may expect the work of demolishing and rebuilding to begin within a few months. There has been no need for immediate haste in the construction of the new custom house at North Carolina's seaport, but in view of the progress being made toward the completion of the Panama Canal, there is no further time to be lost. The Wilmington custom house will occupy a site a block wide and half a block deep. It will have a capacity to handle a largely increased volume of both imports and exports and with this increased capacity the port will develop the business to utilize it. In the laying of the cornerstone of the custom house and on the opening of its doors, Wilmington will have two days that will call for celebration. Wilmington should not stop to draw a long breath until the work is started.—Charlotte Observer.

MR. M'INTIRE AND AUTOMOBILE LAW.

To the Editor of The Star:

Regarding the various articles that have appeared in your paper relative to my letter to Sheriff Cowan with reference to the numbers of several automobiles passing my residence at Winter Park, which to the best of my judgment, were exceeding 12 miles per hour, the limit prescribed by law, I think it only just to myself to make a public statement regarding my action in so doing. In the first place, I will quote the letter written to Sheriff Cowan, which is as follows:

"Below are the numbers of automobiles passing my residence yesterday afternoon, running, to the best of my judgment, anywhere from 15 to 25 and 30 miles an hour, and there were equally as many—not more—which were also exceeding 12 miles an hour, which I could not get the numbers, some being obscured, as I have previously informed you, while others had absolutely no number displayed on the front or rear of their machines. Thus you will see that they are entirely ignoring this law when there is apparently no effort made to make them keep within the limit prescribed by the law.

"I have never yet seen any one trying to catch up with these people, and on speaking to Mr. Kelly once about it, he informed me that he had been down there one time during the morning. As you well know, nine-tenths of the machines pass there during the afternoon.

"Won't you kindly have Mr. Kelly, or whoever is in charge of this business, look after this more closely, as it is evident that the majority of people who drive cars will not regard the law until forced to do so."

The numbers reported have been previously mentioned in your columns. You will observe from the above letter that I made no request of Sheriff Cowan to issue warrants against the owners of the cars mentioned, but the letter was written, as you can readily see, to call the sheriff's attention to the numbers of the cars which I tried to get as accurately as possible, that his man could watch out for these cars or any others that might be exceeding the limit.

As everyone is doubtless aware, the County Commissioners purchased a motorcycle to be used in catching up with people who were exceeding the speed limit, and my letter was written with the sole idea of having the sheriff have his man watch out more closely and give us the protection which I think we are fully entitled to. I have no desire whatever to prosecute anyone without just cause, and my only motive in trying to have the law enforced is to protect my children and those of my neighbors. I cannot sit idly by and see their lives endangered without raising a voice in protest. It has only been 30 days since my two-year-old child came very near being run over by an automobile when he started to cross the turnpike to meet me on my way from the car.

Will say that since the publicity given the letter above quoted, there has been a remarkable reduction in the speed of the cars passing through Winter Park, but they are still exceeding the limit, the evidence of which I have in my possession. Thus you will see that with all the publicity this matter has received, some of the people are not yet observing the law, and when I make another report to the sheriff it will be for the purpose of prosecution.

This is quite a lengthy article, but it is a matter which concerns practically everyone, and I hope you will see fit to publish same in full.

Thanking you, I am,

Yours very truly,
G. O. McINTIRE,

Died from Injuries.

Mitchell Armstrong, colored, who was run over by a train near Chadbourn last Friday afternoon and brought to the James Walker Memorial Hospital here on the midnight train, died Monday afternoon. HOTELS ARE UP AGAINST IT

Wrightsville Beach Resorts Losing Money and May Close Their Doors—Prohibition Blamed for Lack of Crowds

Declaring that they are losing money at the rate of something like $100 a day because of poor and diminishing patronage, and blaming the prohibitory laws relative to selling beer as the cause, the managers of the Wrightsville Beach hotels yesterday met with their stockholders and putting the matter squarely up to them, had a full meeting called for this morning to decide what to do—close up or continue at a loss.

Capt. Edgar L. Hinton, of the Seashore Hotel, and Mr. J. H. Hinton, of the Oceanic Hotel, called at The Star office yesterday and in a conversation with a Star representative, declared that they saw no alternative but to close up their places for the season. Capt. Hinton stated emphatically that he did not propose to sink ten or twelve thousand dollars this season in keeping open a business just for the sentiment of the thing. He said that daily people were writing for accommodations and asking what the situation was as to selling beverages that Summer visitors demand; and upon being informed that prohibition prevailed rigidly, no more was heard of them. They went to Tybee, the Isle of Palms, Virginia coast resorts, and to all other places up and down the coast from Atlantic City to Florida, where they could get what they wanted. He said that even at Morehead City, he understood that conditions were such that tourists who would otherwise come here, were drawn thither.

People who have been coming to Wrightsville Beach, he said, for years upon years, this season have either gone elsewhere to start with, or having come here, left again in disgust. Yesterday a man who has spent the last seven Summers at the beach, a man of wealth, said that he was going to give a party to his friends, and wanted to know what could be done about refreshments. He was told that there was absolutely "nothing doing." He thereupon said he would go where he could be served.

People have been leaving all the hotels daily, the managers say, and the tide of travel beachwards has been reduced to where the hotels, instead of being crowded as they were this time last year, and in other years, have been running at a serious loss, in spite of all efforts at economy, and the managers are ready to throw up their hands.

Last season and in past seasons the hotels served beer to their guests. Indictments were brought against the companies, but the court ruled that the corporations could not be indicted, that indictments must be drawn against individuals. However, the serving of beer was discontinued by the hotels, later in the season last year.

The paucity of travel to this resort is reflected in the sales of Summer tickets to Wilmington, railroad officials being quoted as saying that they could not turn the Summer crowds to Wrightsville Beach, for the old time preference for the beach throughout the South, had seemingly given way before the call from the other resorts up and down the coast where the carefree Summer crowds find no restrictions placed upon their thirst.

Captain Hinton declared that as a result of prohibition there has been more drinking around his hotel than there was when whiskey was sold openly. He said that those who would have whiskey, had cases sent them and that right at the minute he bet there was more whiskey in his hotel than there was at any time during free and open days. But, he said, if a man who doesn't insist on having it all the time, happens to want a drink or a bottle of beer, and can't get it without hunting it up and asking for it, why he silently folds his tent like the Arabs and loudly goes away to where he can get it, damning Wrightsville Beach for a mollycoddle, alleged Summer resort where iced tea or brine is the strongest liquor obtainable.

In the face of more attractive conditions at the competitive resorts, the hotelists say they cannot run their expensive hotels and make good, and hence they are ready and willing to throw up the sponge. Their stockholders include many of the prominent business men of the city, and what they do today will be awaited with intense interest throughout the city and beach. It is declared as a positive fact that the business of the city also is suffering because of the falling off in Summer travel, that the merchants are feeling the effects of it, and that the season so far has totted up mighty little all around, comparatively speaking.

Comment on the action and the announcements of the hotel people was free and frank on all sides yesterday and last night. Probably nine men out of ten said that they could readily understand why people preferred to go to a coast resort where the lid wasn't soldered on, that while Wrightsville Beach was doubtless the most attractive resort south of Atlantic City, its natural beauties weren't everything, and that while it might be a mighty sorry commentary on humanity in general, it was a condition and not a theory that the hotels were up against—that visitors, even if they are not besotted tanks, like to have a glass on the side when they go off on a Summer vacation.

Mingled with such expressions were criticisms of the beach managements for what was termed their failure to go after business. The example of the Isle of Palms, which carried page advertisements in all the leading Southern papers Sunday and yesterday, was cited as a specimen of good enterprise. It was asserted that, even though they were handicapped by prohibitory laws, which were roundly denounced, the resort could draw more people if an active advertising campaign was carried on. "You've got to go after business," said one, "no matter what you are in, if you want to get results."

But the sympathy of the average man about town was with the hotels on the beer proposition, and prohibition in all its dryness came up for the millionth time for a genuine "cussing out." "Here is Wilmington," it was said, "a modern city of forty thousand people, that is governed from Murphy, North Carolina, and by every other Tom, Dick and Harry community in the State, and told what it shall and shall not do; and as a result of the inability of people to get a cold bottle, the city's big resort, representing hundreds of thousands of dollars investment, is going to the deminition bow wows."

Naturally the other side expressed its opinion. It wasn't hard to get a man who believed heart and soul in prohibition to say that if Wrightsville Beach had to depend on booze to exist, then let 'er go! The fine effects of prohibition were pointed out, and it was very effectively put that if the hotels here or elsewhere were to have any special privileges, why all this hurrah about blind tigers? And so the city discussed it, back and fourth, and will await with a lot of interest the decision of the stockholders in the hotels—whether they will close their doors or no.

It was further said by those who contended that all the talk of the hotel managers was "much ado about nothing," that the present tightness in financial circles, especially in the territory contiguous to Wilmington, had much to do with any falling off that the hotel men might be experiencing; that business in all lines for the time being was proceeding under shortened sail and that the hotel men might expect to feel the depression as well as other avenues of commercial enterprise.

NEW CLYDE LINE LEASE

Steamship Company to Remain at Present Terminals for Term of Years—Likely That Warehouses be Improved.

Announcement was made yesterday that the Clyde Steamship Company had renewed for a term of years the lease on the property now used by it as a wharf and warehouse at the foot of Grace street. The property belongs to the Fidelity Trust & Development Company, one of Wilmington's most important enterprises, and it is stated that in order to secure a renewal of the lease the Clyde people had to pay more than double the rental that it has been paying, which indicates the present high value placed upon all property on the water front in the heart of the business district.

It was rumored yesterday that the Clyde Line contemplates extensive warehouse and terminal improvements in the immediate future, but this could not be confirmed. Mr. H. G. Smallbones, commercial agent of the Clyde Line, stated that he had not been advised by the New York office that the lease had been renewed, and, therefore, knew of no contemplated improvements of the property. Mr. Chas. J. Becker, the local agent, was on the beach last night and could not be located by telephone. However, it is pretty certain, from reports, that the company has plans for improvement of the property.

The Fidelity Trust & Development Company made a strong effort to sell this property outright to the Clyde Line, and it was currently reported last week that the company had practically closed a deal for the old Northrop Lumber & Exporting Co. property on the river front in the southern part of the city, but the signing of the lease for the present terminals disposes of the proposition finally, for several years to come. It was reported a few days ago that negotiations for the Northrop Lumber Co., property had reached the point where it was almost considered closed, and attorneys were engaged in examination of title. However, as the company has succeeded in renewing the lease on the present property, which is splendidly located, it is not likely that the property in the southern part of the city will be purchased, at least not in the immediate future.

MEETING OF PRESBYTERY

Called Session Yesterday for Receiving Licentiates Wm. McL. Baker and W. W. Morton—Report James Sprunt Institute

A called session of the Wilmington Presbytery was held in the First Presbyterian church of this city yesterday for the purpose of examining Rev. W. W. Morton and receiving him from East Hanover Presbytery, and Rev. Wm. McL. Baker from the Kings Mountain Presbytery under the care of the Wilmington Presbytery. Rev. Dr. A. D. McClure was called to the chair and presided.

Those who attended the meeting were Rev. Dr. A. D. McClure, Rev. Dr. J. M. Wells, Rev. W. M. Shaw, Rev. J. S. Crowley, Rev. J. M. Plowden and Rev. A. J. Howell, of this city; Rev. J. E. L. Winecoff, president of the James Sprunt Institute, Kenansville; Rev. E. B. Carr, Atkinson, and Ruling Elders Oscar Pearsall and J. A. Springer, of this city.

After receiving Licentiate Rev. Wm. McL. Baker from the Kings Mountain Presbytery and Licentiate Rev. W. W. Morton from the East Hanover Presbytery under the care of the Wilmington Presbytery, Mr. Morton was examined in the various branches of learning and found to be very proficient.

In the afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, Rev. Mr. Morton preached a sermon which was very pleasing to the members of the Presbytery. He was called some time ago in the regular way to the churches at Chadbourn and Whiteville. He will be ordained and installed as pastor at Chadbourn Thursday night, July 24th, by a commission of the Presbytery.

Rev. Dr. J. M. Wells, of this city will preach the sermon and propound the constitutional questions. The charge to the pastor will be made by Rev. A. J. Howell, of this city, and Rev. J. M. Plowden, also of this city, will charge the people. The ruling elders will be Messrs. H. Farrior and J. F. Dunn.

On Friday night, July 25th, he will be installed as pastor at Whiteville. Rev. Dr. A. D. McClure, of this city, will preach the sermon and propound the constitutional questions. Rev. Dr. J. M. Wells will charge the pastor and Rev. A. J. Howell will charge the people. The ruling elders will be Messrs. W. M. Cumming and S. T. Lowman.

A committee on the James Sprunt Institute was appointed and are as follows: Rev. Dr. A. D. McClure, Rev. W. P. M. Currie, Rev. R. A. Lapsley, Jr., and ruling elders, Messrs. W. H. Sprunt and Oscar Pearsall.

The future prospects for the institute are very bright and the indications are that the next year will be the best in its history. The energitic president with his worthy corps of teachers expects to make a fine showing. The board of trustees are working zealously in its behalf, and no backward movement will take place under their aggressive leadership.

At 5 o'clock the Presbytery adjourned after a very profitable and interesting session. One of the pleasing features was an outline of his work by Rev. W. M. Shaw, the Sabbath school missionary. The Fall meeting of the Presbytery will be held in October at Wallace.

JUDGE ROUNTREE SWORN IN

Oath Administered Yesterday Morning in County Court House by Maj. W. N. Harriss, the Clerk—Feeling Talks

With simple but becoming ceremony, impressive withal, Hon. George Rountree, of Wilmington, one of the most learned lawyers in the State, was inducted into the office of Judge of Superior Court of the new Eighth Judicial District, in the Court House at 11 o'clock yesterday morning, the oath being administered by Maj. W. N. Harriss, Clerk of the Superior Court, and long time close personal friend of Judge Rountree, in the presence of practically every member of the bar of the county and a number of business men, who by chance learned during the morning of the hour that Wilmington's honored citizen would take up the judicial ermine.

Following the simple and brief ceremony a meeting of the bar was held at which it was decided to give a banquet at Wrightsville Beach on the night of July 8th in honor of Judge Rountree. All lawyers of the newly created Eighth Judicial District will be invited to attend.

The first act in the simple ceremony yesterday was the signing of the oath of office by Judge Rountree. The pen with which it was signed was furnished by Herbert McClammy, Esq., who gave it in the name of his young son, Herbert, Jr. Major Harriss then read the oath of office, which was repeated after him by Judge Rountree. While the oath was being administered those who witnessed the ceremony stood.

The oath consists of three parts: First, the oath to support the constitution of the United States; second, the oath of allegiance to the State; third, the oath to properly administer the duties of the office of judge. While the oath was being read Judge Rountree held in his hand a small Bible, the gift of his father when he was a boy. Mayor Harriss also presented him with a Bible.

Following the oath Eugene S. Martin, Esq., the dean of the Wilmington bar, in appropriate and simple words voiced the appreciation of the local bar for the high honor that has been bestowed upon their colleague in being elevated to the office of judge of the Superior Court for the State of North Carolina. "I congratulate you," said he, "on having attained this high honor but I congratulate the State of North Carolina more for having obtained the services of such an able citizen. I know that you will administer the affairs of this high office with credit to yourself and to your State."

With evident feelings of deep emotion Judge Rountree responded to Mr. Martin's short speech, stating that he was deeply impressed with the large number of the Wilmington bar who had come to witness the administering of the oath of office, and especially by the words of appreciation spoken in their behalf by his honored friend and colleague. No man, he said, can possibly have a higher regard for the office to which I have just been inducted than I have.

"I accept with fear and trembling this important office, and I want to assure you gentlemen that without the hearty co-operation of the members of the bar no man can properly administer the duties of the office. With the co-operation of the bar, the officers of the court and the citizens of the county I hope to fulfill my duties in such an impartial manner that the State and county may be benefitted by my services. I shall earnestly endeavor to fit myself for the duties of this high office, and if I fail it will not be because of my willingness to do so," he said in conclusion.

At the close of the simple ceremony of induction into office the members of the bar extended personal congratulations, and wished for Judge Rountree a long and successful judicial career. While he did not formally become judge until yesterday yet ever since the announcement of his appointment several months ago by Governor Craig his many friends in the city and county have been calling him judge, so they will not have any trou-

TO CELEBRATE THE FOURTH

Preparations on Grand Scale for Events at Wrightsville and Carolina Beaches—Immense Crowds Expected.

As usual, the Glorious Fourth will be celebrated in grand style by Wilmington people. Immense crowds will visit Wrightsville Beach to see the athletic and aquatic events which will be on a grander scale this year than ever before, while others will go down to Carolina Beach to spend the day enjoying the surf and the music at this pleasant seaside resort.

At Wrightsville, besides the athletic meet, there will be a yacht race by members of the Carolina Yacht Club which will promise much fun for those who enjoy this kind of sport. The Tidewater Power Company will furnish ample car service to handle the large number of people who will go to the beach during the day.

An important feature of the celebration at Wrightsville Beach will be the athletic meet. Prizes will be awarded for first, second and third places in the hundred yard dash and for the sack races. A silver cup will be given those who make first place. There will also be a girls' flag race and a potato race for which suitable prizes will be given the winners.

A special feature will be the aquatic events which will consist of a canoe race through the surf and a swimming race in still water. The still water races will be given in the sound on the west side of Lumina, and are something that have not been given heretofore. An amusing feature will be a tilting contest in the sound. There will also be a canoe polo game in the sound, which will be made up of two teams with three men to each canoe. This promises to be a most interesting part of the celebration, and will be witnessed by thousands of spectators.

The regatta committee of the Carolina Yacht Club annbounce that the Fourth of July race will start at 9 A. M. The event will be public and suitable prizes will be given the winners. The prospects are that there will be a large number of entries for the race.

While there will be no athletic events at Carolina Beach, there will be special music for the occasion as well as plenty of surf bathing. Those who prefer a day of rest and quiet can find it here, and the indications are that many will avail themselves of this privilege.

GUN SHOOT HERE IN AUGUST

Preparations Being Made for Two Day Shoot on Grounds of Local Club by Members of State Organization.

The North Carolina Gun Shoot Association will hold its annual shoot with the Wilmington Club some time during August, the exact date not yet having been determined. It is expected that there will be a large attendance from all parts of the State. Dr. J. H. Dreher, of this city, has charge of the arrangements for the meet, and within a week or ten days will have the programme and all necessary information ready to be sent out.

As soon as the exact date is arranged letters will be sent to all the sporting papers of the country, and it will be given as wide publicity as possible. It is expected that many will come from other States to participate in the shoot, which will be held on the grounds of the local club at 17th and Castle streets.

The event will continue through two days, and many contests of an interesting nature are being arranged. During the time they are here the visiting contestants will stay at Wrightsville Beach, and a number of social events are being arranged for their entertainment.

In connection with the shoot the State organization will be perfected, officers being elected and committees appointed to look after the various features of the association. During the past there has been no regular organization, although there have been shoots held every year in some section of the State. When the organization is completed it will be affiliated with the Inter-State Association, so that the members can participate in the Inter-State shoots. A system of awarding prizes will also be inaugurated which it is hoped will increase interest in the fine art of marksmanship.

Wilmington has the honor of having one of the livest local clubs in the State. Shoots are held every Friday afternoon on the club's grounds at 17th and Castle streets, which are participated in by a large number of citizens of the city. With the good practice that they have had the local shooters should be able to carry off the major part of the honors at the State shoot in August.

ENLARGE SCOPE OF WORK

Health Department Will Standardize Milk and Food Products and Protect Citizens Against Impure Foods.

Announcement was made yesterday by Dr. Charles T. Nesbitt, county superintendent of health, that this department would begin at an early date the standardization of all milk and food products sold in the city.

This will be done gradually, but it is expected that within the next four weeks the laboratory of the health department will be in a position to give the housewives of Wilmington definite and accurate information as to the wholesomeness and purity of manufactured canned foods, extracts used for flavoring, patent medicines, preserved milk and the milk and ice cream that are sold on the local markets.

It is the intention of the department, as soon as possible, to standardize milk sold in the city with reference to its cleanliness and wholesomeness. The milk produced and sold here will be divided into classes according to its quality, and sellers of milk whose products falls into the lowest class for three consecutive months will be excluded from the local market. The lowest class of milk will include milk within the limits of safety as to cleanliness, and within the State pure food law as to contents of fats, solids and water.

The milk that is produced locally or elsewhere that is meant for local consumers will not be permitted to be sold at all if an analysis shows it to be dangerously unclean or if it falls below the legal limit in nutritive qualities.

Ice cream produced by local factories and the ice cream that is sold, no matter where produced, will be examined both chemically and bacteriologically, and will be divided into classes in the same way as milk. The health department will enforce the provisions of the State law in every particular with reference to the sale of ice cream compounds which are sold as ice cream. It is the purpose of the department to see that citizens are protected as far as possible under the State law and under the ordinances of the city so far as they may be assured that no soda fountain or place where ice cream is sold will furnish anything except pure and wholesome cream.

It is the intention of the department later to take up the matter of seeing that confectioners and bakers also furnish products that come up to the standard established by the State Pure Food Law.

The State has been at work for several years on the question of seeing that only pure and wholesome foods are sold. The work that the health department of the city is undertaking is only supplementary to the work of the State, but will, of course, be more localized. The State law defines what is meant by an adulterated food, fixes a penalty for their sale and also fixes a penalty for the misbranding of foods. Before a dealer can be prosecuted for their sale he is first allowed the privilege of giving satisfactory reasons why he sells them. If he can furnish satisfactory reasons, and agrees to stop their sale he is not prosecuted in the courts.

The inauguration of this work by Dr. Nesbitt and the officers of the health department of the city is in line with the work being done by other progressive cities of the country. It will tend to bring the department more in touch with the people, and will also mean that adulterated foods and impure milk and cream will be placed permanently under the ban.

The inspection of such foods as canned vegetables, butter and butter fats, preserved fruits, vinegar, cheese, coffee substitutes, flour, honey, lemon extracts and maple syrups has been carried on for several years by the State, and will also be made a part of the work of the health department of th's city. A list of condemned foods has been made by the State Food Chemist, and will be of great help to the officers of the health department. It will not therefore be necessary to devote as much time to inspection of foods of this kind as to milk and ice cream, but enough time will be given to their inspection to insure the people of Wilmington having an opportunity of knowing exactly what kind of food they buy.

A MAMMOTH WAREHOUSE

Work Begun Preliminary to Driving of Piling for Building to be Erected by Mr. W. B. Cooper—Located Near Hilton

Work was begun yesterday preliminary to driving of piling for a mammoth warehouse to be erected on the west side of the Northeast branch of the Cape Fear river, opposite the waterworks plant at Hilton, by Mr. W. B. Cooper, one of Wilmington's most progressive and substantial citizens. The warehouse is to be used for general storage purposes and it will add greatly to the facilities of handling the business of this port.

The warehouse will be about 125 by 200 or 250 feet in size and will be of modern construction in every particular. It is hoped to have it completed and ready for service by September 1st, in order to aid in taking care of the Fall business through this port, which it is confidentally expected will be unusually large this year.

Mr. Cooper recently purchased the 13-acre tract of land lying between the mill of Mr. W. W. Koch, on the south, and the railroad on the north, and is directly across the river from the municipal waterworks plant. It has a frontage of 800 or 1,000 feet on the Cape Fear river, and is considered one of the best locations on the river front, outside of the downtown district, for a warehouse of this kind. Just north of the railroad tracks are located three large fertilizer plants. It is hoped eventually to have the entire water front that is owned by Mr. Cooper taken up with warehouses.

Wilmingtonians generally and the business men in particular will be glad to learn of this enterprising move on the part of Mr. Cooper, for it is well known that this port is lacking in the matter of warehouse facilities, notwithstanding the large number of mammoth warehouses built during the past few years by the railroads. The business has simply grown faster than the facilities for taking care of it, and it has been stated any number of times that large distributing houses had gone to other cities instead of locating here because they could not find warehouse room in Wilmington. The railroad warehouses are kept filled about all the time, it is said, and it was stated yesterday by one in position to know that these warehouses at the present just simply cannot take care of all the business offered. The new warehouse will offer facilities for taking care of considerable more business and the hope is expressed that still other warehouses will soon dot the water front.

Mr. W. H. Banck, civil engineer, has charge of the work, and the contract for driving the piling was awarded yesterday to Capt. J. S. Williams. It is stated that something like 1,000 piling will be used in building up the wharf. The contract for the building will be let later.

Tried for Assault

Jim Henderson, colored, was before Justice Bornemann yesterday charged with assaulting Albert Parker, colored, with a hammer. Henderson and Parker are working with the contractors who are putting in sewerage lines for the city, and they had some dispute. After hearing the evidence Justice Bornemann found Henderson guilty of simple assault and taxed him with the costs.

THE RECORDER'S COURT

Jesse Abraham, Colored, Sent to the Roads for Twelve Months

In Recorder's court yesterday morning Jesse Abraham, colored, plead guilty to assault with a deadly weapon, and was given six months on the roads. He also plead guilty to stealing a coat and was given six months for this. There was also a charge against him for carrying concealed weapons but he was not prosecuted on this charge.

Monday afternoon a Mr. Blake, who is building a house at corner of 15th and Chesnut streets, when he quit work, left his tools in a chest, and also a coat. Abraham went in and got the coat and was discovered and chased. When he found that he was being pursued he turned and attempted to draw his gun on his pursuers. He was arrested and placed in the city prison to await trial yesterday.

Saturday afternoon the children of Mert Jones and Willie Hickson, both colored, got into a dispute about a pump, and later the parents came out to settle it with the result that they got into a quarrel and it is said that Willie Hickson drew a shovel on Mert. Lillie Hickson, wife of Willie, also used a lot of abusive language, and Mert had a warrant sworn out charging Willie with assault and Lillie with disorderly conduct. The matter was thrashed out in the Recorder's court yesterday, and Willie Hickson was fined $15 and the costs while his wife got off with the costs.

Yesterday was the day set for the trial of Valla McLaughlin, colored, charged with the abduction of Bertha Jones, but as Evangelist T. C. Person, also colored, who is a main witness in the case, failed to show up it was postponed until tomorrow. Person sent a telegram stating that he had been delayed in getting here.

The case against S. D. Bryant, charged with selling malt liquors, was nol prossed with leave. The case against L. Gurganus, charged with interfering with the officers in the discharge of their duties, was continued until July 11th. Judgment was still left open in the Son Mills case.

TONE OF STOCKS IMPROVED

Fair Gains Are Made in Some Parts of the List—Trading More Active Near Close of the Market

New York, July 1.—Although the stock market remained in a semi-stagnant condition today there was a distinct improvement in tone. In some parts of the list fair gains were made with the Harrimans, Coppers and Coalers showing most strength.

The day began with renewed bear selling, which was most effective in Union Pacific, Reading, Lehigh Valley and Canadian Pacific. Chesapeake and Ohio also was heavy, declining a point to 52, a new low level. Bear selling failed to shake out long stock, however, and traders reversed their position. The market rose easily, when covering was attempted, and toward the close trading became more active on the upturn, with Union Pacific leading the advance.

There apparently was little connection between the news of the day and the movements of prices, owing probably to the highly professional character of trading.

The contradictions of such a market are illustrated by the recent erratic course of Union Pacific, which rose buoyantly last Saturday, when consummation of the negotiations for the Harriman dissolution was announced declined sharply yesterday, after publication of the plan itself, as presented to the court, and today was first weak and ben he strongest stock in the list.

The money market showed no effect of the disbursements of July 1st interest and dividend payments. If no other result is produced, some rectification is looked for of the poor showing made by the banks in last Saturday's statement, owing to preparations for today's payments. Six months loans, carrying into 1914, were negotiated today on a basis of 5 1-2 per cent., which marked no change from recent rates, but was significant mainly from the fact that it indicated an indefinite continuance of the stiffer tendencies for long maturities.

Bonds were steady, with some issues showing good improvement.

Total sales, par value, $1,852,000. Total sales today, 219,600, including: C. and O., 7,400; L. and N., 700; N. and W., 100; Reading, 37,500; S. A. L., 100; S. A. L., pfd., 100; Southern Railway, 3,200; Southern Railway, pfd., 500; Tennessee Copper, 400; Union Pacific, 50,600; Y. C. C., 500.

Bid prices for government bonds were sharply depressed today. Ten of the 2s were offered at 99½, with no takers, following the sale yesterday of two of these bonds at that figure, the first time they had fallen below par. The bid price for the 2s declined ⅝ today. The 3s, the coupon 4s, and the Panama 3s declined ½ on call. The falling off of these bonds was thought to have been due to the proposal, in connection with the currency bill, for elimination of bond secured currency.

The first "4th of July" celebration

IN those days they celebrated the country's independence of foreign rule; they had to fight for it, but they got it. In these days there's a different sort of independence to be gained; and you ought to help win it.

Independence from fraud in merchandise is one of the things we 're trying for; the elimination of the cheap stuff that masquerades as quality. It appears in clothing in the form of cotton mixed fabrics, in "sloppy" tailoring, in flashy, undignified styles.

Hart Schaffner & Marx

clothes are a declaration of independence; they're all-wool, the best tailoring, the best style; they give the wearer independence of thought; and they save him from paying too much for good clothes.

That's the way we sell them; at $18, $20, $25, and more; the best values you ever saw at $25.

unusual heat, for it poured down in a way to keep men scores of years younger in the shade. About 30 veterans were taken sick in the big tent during the exercises, but most of them were able to get up and walk away from the relief stations to which they were taken after a few minutes' rest. The army ambulances were fairly busy during the day, and there were several hundred men who dropped in at relief stations, got a bit of medicine, rested for a half hour or so, and then went back to their tents. Out and out cases of heat prostrations were unusual.

Although the army doctors were not given to talking about such matters, it was evident tonight that many of the old soldiers would have been better off if they had not undertaken the trip. Two veterans, apparently without friends, have been found in camp. They are totally blind and are quartered in hospital tents. Micagga Weiss, a New York veteran, who was taken to one army station today, announced that he is 112 years old. The average age is about 70, the doctors believe and there are hundreds of men who are over 80. The long journeys many of them have taken, the fact that they arrived here thoroughly tired, and the hardships that they have undergone in addition to the heat have made the sick list fill up.

Tonight there was a good prospect for a rainstorm, and if it comes the situation will be relieved and the big danger of prostrations and deaths will be postponed if not entirely averted.

The first death of a veteran in the town of Gettysburg occurred this afternoon. The victim was J. D. Albert, of Washington, D. C., about 70 years old. He is said to have been prominently connected with the United States pension office. Death was due to a stroke of paralysis. Mr. Albert came here yesterday and secured quarters in a boarding house in preference to going to camp.

The fifth death reported in camp was that of C. Yates, aged 70, a veteran from Latrobe, Pa., who died late today as a result of heat prostration. In the hospital of the Pennsylvania State health department three women were received during the afternoon, suffering from the heat. None was believed to be in a serious condition tonight.

The agitation for the closing of the bar rooms in the town of Gettysburg appears to have died away tonight and they remain open for a flourishing business.

Address of Gen. Young.

"Complete evidence of the perpetuity of the United States as a Nation is presented by the reunion here of the Union and Confederate veterans who 50 years ago engaged in the historic battle of Gettysburg," declared Gen. Bennett H. Young, commander-in-chief of the United Confederate Veterans, in an address to the veterans today.

He declared the men of both armies whose deeds of valor made this battlefield forever historic were true to truth as they saw it, and that more than eight out of every ten who participated in that struggle "have gone to be with the immortals."

Referring to the tattered battle-flags in evidence on hand, Gen. Young said they are no longer being waved to lead men into the jaws of death, "but to declare and proclaim a peace that in its beneficent power and in its political liberty challenges not only the gaze, but the admiration of the civilized world."

He spoke feelingly of the fact that men who fought a half century ago meet today as friends, with war's animosities forgotten.

"There are things in the past that are regrettable," he said. "Laws were enacted that challenged the equality of the men of the South, but, tried in the crucible of reason, liberty and patriotism, they have all been repealed. Every State has equal rights, every man has equal privileges. The war has left no badge of inferiority, and the men who wore the blue and followed the flag of the Union ask for and expect nothing that is not the right of the men who wore the gray and followed the Stars and Bars.

"It may be that the suggestion lately put into form to give Confederate soldiers the same privileges in National Soldiers' Homes as Federal soldiers may lead to the establishing of this right, or that peace, in its demand for the obliteration of all bitterness of the past, may demand that the Nation shall pension surviving Confederates.

"I do not even suggest, or in the name of my people, say that it would be accepted, but this Republic is a great destroyer of the cherished ideals of the past, when they stand in the way of completest justice. For nearly 50 years the people of the South, without complaint, have contributed millions for the pensions of Federal soldiers. A nation's gratitude has been meted out through enormous grants to provide for the Federal soldiers, their wives and children. No murmur has ever come from the men of the Confederacy at this vast outlay, and there are some who predict that the hour may arrive in National life when the few and infirm remaining men who fought under the Confederate standards with admittedly unsurpassed courage, should have in their evening time the comforts and conveniences that their intrepidity deserves.

"William McKinley reached the sublimest heights of statesmanship when he allowed a little daughter of the South to pin a Confederate badge on his breast, and when, gifted as few men, with the power of forecasting political events, he urged that the graves of the Confederates who died in Northern prisons, should have, at the cost of their Nation's treasury, a stone to tell who they were, whence they came and where they died.

"No greater triumph of generosity was ever witnessed than when the United States put up markers over the sepulchers of Southern soldiers and carved upon them these inspiring words, 'Confederate Soldier.'

"These magic words," he said, "touch the tenderest sentiments of a Southern heart and proclaim highest distinction among those who love them because they died for the Southland."

While the North cherishes the memories of its great leaders, the South, he said, claimed the same right as to their heroes of the Confederacy.

"Your ideals in the war are not the same as ours," said Gen. Young. "Lee and Stonewall Jackson and Albert Sydney Johnston are ours and you have yours in Grant, Meade and their associates. We put these things behind us, yet we treasure them in our heart of hearts and in the success of the Republic in the preservation of the truest liberty under this government, in the equal protection of all men under the law and in the glory of this country, we have a common patriotism and a comon devotion to our country."

An Unprecedented Spectacle.

Alfred B. Beers, of Bridgeport, Conn., commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, addressing the Blue and Gray veterans, pointed out that the history of the world holds no record of "such a spectacle as this—the voluntary meeting on a battlefield of those who constituted the armed forces who fought against each other. He sketched briefly the conflict "waged by men of the same race, of the same bravery, the same endurance," and expressed thanks they were met now as citizens of one country to help lay the cornerstone of a stronger nation.

The great bulk of veterans, he said, "cherished no personal animosity toward each other. Each did his duty as he saw it. Today the veterans of the North salute the veterans of the South with joy that the conflict is over, and that they can meet each other as brothers."

A Hearty Welcome.

"In the name of the Nation, I bid you welcome," said in part Lindsay M. Garrison, Secretary of War, in welcoming the veterans. "In the name of the whole people of a united country, I bid you twice welcome. In the name of its people who recognize the high import of this fraternal gathering, you are thrice welcome.

"Once again is Gettysburg the center of the world's attention. Once again does this field tremble under the tread of a mighty host—not now in fear, however, but in joy. The field of enmity has become the field of amity. You have trodden under your feet the bitter weeds of hate and anger; and in their places have sprung up the pure flowers of friendship and love".

antee that you will be financially safe for the balance of your life."

The Gompers report states that the interview terminated there; that Gompers succeeded in keeping the paper Brandenburg had prepared for him to sign and that Vice President Duncan and other officials of the Federation were at once made acquainted with the circumstances. President Gompers and other officials of the Federation of Labor probably will testify before the Senate committee as the alleged activities of the lobbyists bore directly upon National legislation.

Postpone Trip

San Francisco, Cal., July 1.—"Broughton Brandenburg never was in the employ of the National Association of Manufacturers." This was the reply today of John Kirby, Jr., former president of the association, when he was shown dispaches from Washington reporting the charges made there by Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor.

Mr. Kirby, David M. Parry, also a former president of the association, and J. P. Bird, of Plainfield, N. J., general manager of the association, left tonight for Washington, in obedience to notifications from the sergeant-at-arms of the Senate, that their testimony was required by the committee investigating the activities of lobbyists.

Mr. and Mrs. Kirby and Parry were to have sailed at noon on the steamer Venture for Australia, where they planned to make an investigation of the relation between capital, labor and the State in the Antipodes. They cancelled their reservations at considerable epense half an hour before the liner cleared. The party gave out a signed statement that the Mulhall affair had been engineered in an attempt to destroy the association.

The statement in part follows:

"From the press dispatches shown us today the purpose of the so-called Mulhall story is made plain. Not satisfied with securing from the Democratic convention held in Baltimore absolute pledges to exempt organized labor from the operation of the law of this land, they now attempt by falsehood and misrepresentation to discredit and destroy the National Association of Manufacturers—the one organization that from its inception has operated under the slogan of 'equal opportunity for all under the law.' That we have fought steadily the greatest criminal trust this world has ever known, we do not deny, that we have illegally attacked or in any way misrepresented this damnable trust, we do emphatically deny."

Technically speaking, none of the party was subpoenaed. Copies of the telegrams exchanged with Sergeant-at-Arms Higgins show that Kirby was "requested to appear" on July 8th, necessary expenses to be reimbursed.

In reply to an inquiry whether he would accept this request as service of a subpoenae, he answered that he would, but begged that the inconvenience and expense necessarily entailed be considered excuse for a postponement. Sergeant Higgen replied this morning that the committee insisted and the party left tonight.

STORM IN CYPRESS CREEK.

Hail Ruins Crops and Lightning Destroys Building—Heavy Loss.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Garland, N. C., July 1.—A severe rain and hail storm, featured by electrical displays, visited sections of Cypress Creek township Saturday night. Hail the size of hen eggs is said to have fallen. Much damage was done to crops, those of Messrs. C. P. Parker, Alex. Smith and Mr. D. Lewis Cromartie suffering most, from reports heard.

Mr. Smith's corn was torn to ribbons and his cotton riddled. Mr. Cromartie's corn was greatly damaged and a beautiful lot of watermelons ruined. Mr. Parker's entire crop was greatly damaged, especially the corn, which he thinks is ruined. He estimates his loss at $1,000.

During the storm a storehouse in Mr. Parker's yard was struck by lightning and burned. By hard work the dwelling was saved. Many things of value were lost in the fire, among them being 300 pounds of lard and a large chest of bed burnishings.

PETITION IN BANKRUPTCY

Mr. H. Gideon, Front Street Merchant, Failed Yesterday

Petition in voluntary bankruptcy was filed in United States Court yesterday afternoon by Mr. Hykil Gideon, a Syrian merchant who has been in the dry goods business on South Front street for a number of years, and the matter was referred by the clerk, Mr. S. P. Collier, to the referee in bankruptcy, Geo. H. Howell, Esq., where it will come up for consideration this morning. The petition was filed by Herbert McClammy, Esq., attorney for Mr. Gideon. The liabilities are given at $10,000 with assets at $2,500. The petitioner claims the exemption allowed by law, which is $500.

VICTIM OF SMALLPOX.

Mr. Bill Hansley, Hostler at the City Hall, Taken Ill.

Because he had a well-developed case of smallpox, Mr. Bill Hansley, hostler at the City Hall, was sent home alst Thursday. He had been complaining for several days, but not much was thought about it until there was a breaking out on the skin. A physician was called in and he was found to have smallpox.

As a matter of precaution, it was deemed advisable to vaccinate all the members of the police force who had never been vaccinated or whose last vaccination did not "take." Dr. John Thames, assistant superintendent of health, did the vaccinating, and it was stated that up to last night he had vaccinated about 20 members of the force. The reason the number is so large is because there are a number of new members of the force, and there are many others whose last vaccination did not "take," so as a matter of precaution they were inoculated again. It is not thought that there is any danger of the disease spreading among members of the department, as every possible precautionary measure has been taken by the health authorities.
